SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

1. HUANG Nan-chun * was one of the two delegates representing the Philippines at the World Federation of Trade Unions conference in Peiping from 16 -25 November 1949. The other delegate has not been identified.
2. Before going to the Philippines in 1946 to take charge of Communist activities among Chinese women, HUANG was a member of the Chinese Fourth Route Army. In the Philippines she was editor of the now defunct Chinese Guide Daily  and president of the Young Women's Association, local Chinese Communist front. She left the Philippines in 1948.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] of 9 August 1949 gives a biographical sketch of HWONG Wei whose activities parallel those of HUANG Nan-chun. HWONG Wei has been reported elsewhere as probably the same person as HUANG Nan-chun.

25X1A  [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] stated that the Chinese Guide Daily was a Communist news handbill distributed by the Hua Chi, a guerrilla organization which originated during the war.
